

Translucent and Metallic

Written by Administrator
Thursday, 11 February 2010 21:23

Mixing Translucent and Metallic Colors

Translucent clay permits transmission of light into the clay. When mixed with other colors, you will see added depth. These colors will maintain translucency when rolled thin.

Metallic colors contain the maximum amount of mica pigments allowing for excellent mica shift results. When mixed with other colors, they will maintain the same metallic properties